

STOP DANDRUFF! HAIR GETS THICK, WAVY, BEAUTIFUL

GIRLS! DRAW A CLOTH THROUGH YOUR HAIR AND
DOUBLE ITS BEAUTY

SPEND A FEW CENTS! DAN-DRUFF VANISHES AND HAIR
STOPS COMING OUT

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair, soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff, is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed, and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, fluffiness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will, you can not find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—growing all over your scalp—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine is, we believe, the only cure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. An hour later your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this.

OLD-TIME ACROBAT DIES IN 'FRISCO

Henry Seymour, 55, one of the famous Seymour family of Norwich, jumpers and acrobats, whose name has been carried around the world by the four brothers, died in the west.

He was married at Helena, Montana, and had a daughter, but it is not known whether his wife and daughter are living yet. The two brothers of Henry's, whose names were Joseph and Arthur, had preceded his death.

Henry once had the experience of reading his own obituary, as he was reported to have died of pneumonia in Oklahoma on Feb. 19, 1912. He had a severe sickness with pneumonia and typhoid fever at that time and the nurse in attendance reported his death but a doctor found signs of life short time afterwards and eventually Mr.
Seymour recovered.

This severe experience so changed his appearance that his brother Arthur did not know him when Henry came to this city in April, 1912, and called at his brother Arthur's home on Union street.

The family home was on Baltic street, the father's name being Joseph.
Henry started his public appearance in the circus when he was only 12 years old, going out with Joseph T. Manchester of 41 Colt street. For seven years they teamed together as the Rose Brothers, starting out with De-la's circus of Meriden. Later a large part of their time was spent in California and although they were playing theater dates in their trick of the four boys in the family who won fame as acrobats and jumpers, only one, Ovid, is now living. His home is in Watervliet, N. Y., but it is probable that he is out on tour at the present time.
